Washington University Living Well Center®

Your health is important. From sleep and nutrition to exercise and mental health, many factors can impact your overall wellbeing. At the Living Well Center, we bring together healthcare experts to help you meet your personal health and wellness goals.

The Living Well Center can help you:
- Improve your health for surgery, such as a hip or knee replacement.
- Treat a specific condition if you are not a candidate for surgery.
- Enhance quality of life during and after cancer treatment.
- Optimize your health to meet a specific goal, such as healthy living after having a baby or training for an athletic event.

No Two Programs Alike

Your personal wellness program is designed based on your detailed assessment and evaluation. Your care team includes physicians, therapists and dietitians — experts in musculoskeletal health and its link to general health. Your coordinated care program may include:
- Acupuncture
- Aerobic training
- Behavioral health counseling
- Manual medicine
- Medical massage
- Nutritional counseling
- Physical therapy
- Smoking cessation

How do patients pay for these services?

Our patient-focused center offers unique services. There may be out-of-pocket expenses associated with some treatments. We work with patients to customize treatment plans for individual needs and insurance coverage.

See the Results

Engaged participants can expect to see health improvements within 90-120 days. Results may include less pain, improved strength and stamina, weight loss, controlled diabetes and/or lower blood pressure.
